Features Available to Library Administrators

Saved Searches and Company Lists

Create unique saved searches and company lists for your faculty and students so they can instantly find information in their area of interest.

Newsletters

Keep your faculty and students up-to-date on the latest news with custom newsletters. Factiva's Newsletter Builder ensures you can create professional-looking newsletters quickly and easily. Newsletters can be distributed by email, RSS, podcast, or widget.

Workspaces

Gather and disseminate research with workspaces. When the library administrator saves articles to the workspace, those items can be easily distributed through a widget, RSS, or podcast.

Factiva.com Features and Functionality

Factiva.com brings together three search options on one interface, to make it easier for researchers of all skill levels to search across Factiva's thousands of sources.

Simple Search

A single search box provides a straightforward approach to searching that will be familiar to all users.

Search Builder Form

The Search Builder form guides users with easy-to-understand parameters that allow anyone to search like a pro.

Search Builder

The Search Builder continues to be a superior search tool researchers have relied on to create complex searches, using Boolean search logic, fields, and Dow Jones Intelligent Indexing.

Everything You Need, Discovered Easily Results

Choose to view articles, websites, and multimedia, or narrow results with the visual Discovery Pane.

Factiva.com News Pages

Factiva.com News Pages allow users to view the latest news on a chosen topic. Library Administrators can also create custom News Pages.

Company Reports, Quotes and Charting

Find snapshots for over 31,000 public companies, which include news, reports, charts and financial data. Gather quotes and interactive charts for stocks, funds, market indices, and currencies. Up to five years of data is available.
